We visited for 'elevenses'. The Covid19 precautions include assigning tables to customers before queuing for food and drink. Since the 'Eat out to help out' scheme was in operation we decided to have a bacon sandwich as well as coffee and cake. The Covid19 precautions made service a little slow, but it was still friendly. The sandwich was prepared to order, served quite quickly, and was very good in quality and qua... read more. Called into Austins department store today to view their sale and decided to break for coffee in their Pine Room restaurant. Disappointed to find that although they advertise as having free wifi available this did not work on my iPad. I did find the same thing some months ago but thought they might have sorted the problem but evidently not. Such a shame as I shan't bother to visit again. I have rated as poor due to t...
