What lan2109 likes about The Pavilion: We haven't been here for many years as the place had really gone down when we were last there. This time we only went because the Langham had a private function and was closed to non residents. The to us new outside seating area of the Pavillion attracted our attention, so we decided to give it another try. It has really improved and the service is good again. There are apparently some worries about the lease so we h... read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What sessoriana doesn't like about The Pavilion: Great suntrap terrace when we visited. We had coffee and sandwiches. The coffee (Black Americans ok, but not great and the tall mugs on saucers not to our liking, what is wrong with cups. Sandwiches were a game of two halves brilliant dish of salad on the side, but bread rather uninspiring factory sliced bread pity as we have some great bakers in Eastbourne. Cutlery complete with smears not appealing. Staff were nice... read more.
