nice vegan eating in reasonable price, quite large portions. restaurant and shop at the same time is a beautiful idea, but they need to be prepared that they are eating and customers around their table at the same time shopping. we had daily menu (soup and main dish - about 200kc) and we liked it! I would definitely come back for the brussels sprouts suppe, it was really delicious delicious read more. What User doesn't like about Herbivore:

recommend them for the retreat and for the days they can eat outside on a bank, it would be more convenient! there are only 1 table on the whole place with camping chairs and then a couch (for about 5 people) and a side table they can eat on (for 2 people). terrible concept, service is not present, the place is very hectic and stressful. Eating is good! not excellent. the prices are good. my experience was overshadow... read more.
