Popped in for coffee and cake with a friend after receiving a recommendation. The setting is lovely and the cafe is light, spacious and airy. The coffee was Ok and the cake selection, although not massive, provided something for everyone. I had a large coconut...macaroon which was lovely. read more. Pity! I've been here for years and I've always loved everything, I was very disappointed to find all specials away! I had eaten the Beetroot cake. it is now very quiet, not the usual slut and eating is boring. I had a suppe that was nice, but there was nothing else on the menu that I had tied up. their specializations made sacredness especially, but unfortunately will not be visited so often. very disappointing.
