Arbatine has a large selection of vegan dishes, including some (probably) typical Lithuanian recipes that are interesting for vegan traveling who want to taste local cuisine in Kaunas. I and a friend tried a few dishes each and all were good, but some were a bit dirty. Overall our experience was good, but nothing overwhelming or special. Updated by previous review on 2022-02-23 read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in pleasant weather. What Dangė Jakubas doesn't like about Arbatine:

I was a bit disappointed here, the portions are small and taste like something you'd get at a university cafeteria, while not being all that cheap for Lithuanian standards. That being said, it is a nice location to sit outside and the waitress was very nice. read more. With the large variety of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Arbatine becomes even more attractive. In addition, the sweet desserts of the restaurant shine not only on children's plates or in the eyes of the little guests. There are also scrumptious menus available, typical for Europe.
