King's Cross is not what it used to be anymore! A hidden gem tucked away off a quiet side street near the station, only known by locals. Once a derelict mechanic's workshop, the venue has been restored and rejuvenated to give birth to this stunning industrial warehouse-like interior, a style adored by Londoners and highly in vogue. On top of that, DJs play every Friday evening and tables are available outside in good... read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its visitors, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What Sean Butler doesn't like about 06 St Chad's Place:

The King's Cross area is not somewhere we would normally be heading to for Sunday lunch but Dave Cork Gourmet Guy' Ahern was debuting his burger pop up concept Burger Breakout at St Chad's Place and that's enough promise to make the trip worthwhile. We had not heard of St Chad's Place before and (at the time of writing) there are no blog posts on it either, but a short walk from King's Cross station, the venue is a v... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: 06 St Chad's Place in Camden traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a delicious Trifle, The customers of the establishment also appreciate the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. At the bar, you can also relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Naturally, you can't miss out on the fine burgers, which are accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges served.
