What User likes about Caffe Nero: When the wait was over and the food menu was finally revealed, I must admit to feeling a bit short-changed. My favourite small plates from the old place are nowhere to be seen, having been replaced by a selection of gourmet burgers, hotdogs and fried...chicken. Bacaro have brought their legendary stone-baked pizzas to the table and there's a 'Lanes' menu with sharing trays loaded with waffle fries, onion chips, nacho... read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Caffe Nero: There's this one member of staff who seems to be so rude and is aggressive and has a very bad attitude, he is not English and has dark hair. I have seen him have fallouts with several customers too. I have been avoiding this Nero...because of him. read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious cuisine from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good diversity of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
