The place from Manchester offers 15 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of £38. What E likes about Afternoon Tea at Manchester Mercure:

Location is great as it's 5 minutes from city centre. Staff are friendly and welcoming. The room size was good with a lovely large window although only 1 part of it opened ever so slightly, a decent bath/shower, tv, vanity unit, hairdryer kettle etc. Only downfall is that there was only 1 or 2 plug sockets and these were across the room or hidden in the closet not a big issue but means you would have to unplug the tv... What e doesn't like about Afternoon Tea at Manchester Mercure:

Imagine someone knocking at your door at 3am demanding to open? They said they are from security . Indeed, I called the reception and it was the security! They claimed that there was someone in my room and they wanted to check the room? (! couldn 't sleep and was watching the TV. I was super stressed and proposed to call the police who would be more than welcome to check the room and even search my luggage if they wi... read more. In the morning, you can enjoy a diverse brunch at Afternoon Tea at Manchester Mercure, as much as you want, and you can look forward to typical fine French cuisine.
