Used to get takeaways from here so decided to have a wander and treat myself to an Indian. The staff were really welcoming and the poppadums some of the best I have had. The meal was so tasty I polished off every last morsel even though I was full. Will definitely come again but will bring my sister with me as she would love it. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat outside. What Foodcriticnorwich doesn't like about City Spice:

Last night ordered a takeaway to eat with friends whilst watching the boxing. This is by far the worst curry I've ever had. Ordered the lamb patia, which only comes as lamb tikka bizarrely! Lamb was borderline inedible had had to dig out the fat and bones, and as for the naan bread, I've chewed on tastier and softer cardboard boxes. I can confidentially say, I'll never be ordering from City Spice again. read more. City Spice from Norwich is a good place for a bar to a cocktail after work and be able to hang out with friends, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. You can also look forward to tasty vegetarian cuisine, Meals are also prepared here, deliciously and freshly with original Indian spices.
