very nice small place to eat, with a pretty garden area and a lot of interior. loved the tabletops made of well-supported wood! nice menu choice, inexpensive and good size served. friendly, efficient service from service staff. they also had a tempting number of cakes in a display, but unfortunately the main course didn't leave me out. Oh, a good excuse for a return visit for coffee and cake! read more. As a visitor, you can use the WiFi of the restaurant at no extra cost, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather are right, you can also eat outside. What Rowena Hunter doesn't like about Toast:

Been going to Toast many times over years, always ok but not today after work -had to wait ages for cheese /tomato Toasty had to ask how much longer wait as had drunk my coffee which was not that hot -tomatoes in toasty were cold.... The lady when i paid could not have cared less. Was very disappointed will use coffee tea place further up high street in future. read more.
