The service is great but a bit slow. Orders are placed at the till and because they don't speak English or Irish it's best to point at what you want with maybe a word or two to help identify it, the size etc. The curry I had was amazing, with massive portions of rice and side dish of noodles for an awesome price. The bubble tea is awesome hot, warm, or cold. They're all great. The place is adorned with giant teddies... read more. What User doesn't like about Mosa:

I used to come here all the time and order food and bubble tea however I hadn't been since the name change so I decided to go and order my usual sad to say I was disappointed .I used to really love their spice bags and they had great portions for the price however since the change of name they have changed the way I used to get an almost full bag to a minuscule box.The recipe has changed also , I used to love their c...
