The restaurant opened up again on May and we visited in the same week. We come here occasionally for a treat and it was great to be back. The food on our visit was delicious their crispy salt and chilli fried squid is...better than in any restaurant I've been to in London. Lots of choice on the menu. We tend to come here when wanting more authentic Chinese dishes and go to China Garden when we fancy eating dim sum. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What [\[redacted\]](#) doesn't like about Good Friends:

Char Siew(Barbecued Pork) on plain Rice asked for very lean. Verdict thin slices,lean and tasty. Mine- Roast Duck boneless on plain rice- pieces- of inch thickness lean meat and pieces of skin with fat underneath or inedible bits. Very disappointing...sizes offered! Good thing is we were charged each which was stated as on menu outside. Younger new waitress were ok service. service added to bill. read more. At Good Friends in Brighton and Hove, tasty grilled food is freshly roasted on an open flame and garnished with tasty sides.
