Meal was ok didn't expect much for the two for £20.00 .. Barmaid was pleasant and bubbly, chef seemed a little cheesed off.. The pie I had even tho microwaved then crisped after was tasty and full of meat.. My partner had the hunters chicken which was lovely as she put it, just needed more sauce. Chips where good too. The onion rings where a tad overcooked but overall its pub grub. It was tasty, if it wasn't for the... read more. What Kirsten Hughes doesn't like about The Devon Arms:

this place knows how to make party. every evening there are every crowd of live music and karaoke, small bar, but much beer to go around, tight but comfortable sitting places and much. read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious menus from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good diversity of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, Besides, the light and healthy menus on the menu are among the most sought-after dishes of the customers. Typically, the burgers of this place are served as highlights along with sides like french fries, leaf and cabbage salads or wedges, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
