A nice little spot in Brum for an authentic Chinese meal. Exceptionally fast service. I had the braised beef brisket, which was very fatty, however that is how its supposed to be served, so keep that in mind if your expecting a more Chinese takeaway kind of deal. They also offered us free rice top ups during our sitting, which was nice.

sweet pricing tried the spicy fried chicken and it was SO salty, dont know if thats the usual or the cook got a bit heavy handed today, it also wasnt spicy, not by my standards anyway, it just had an interesting numbing sensation that some could call spicy i guess. I mixed it with some leftover chicken sauce i had and found it bearable but man it was salty. read more. The large variety of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Woodstock Baguettes even more worthwhile.
