Been here regularly, went here over the weekend. Bit quiet this weekend but didn't make the experience any worse. It was great for the banter and watching the horse racing. had the neck oil IPA that theyve got on offer in here then a whisky from their wide selection in the evening. read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What Elvira Abrahamsson doesn't like about The Mudlark:

One star for the restaurant, 4 for the bar. The service is very slow, took them more than 1.5 hours to server the starters for *some* of us. The food is average, prices are fair. As for the bar, I didn't sit there, but the atmosphere feels good with positive vibes. I'd definitely want to try it in the future. read more. At The Mudlark from Southwark you can taste delicious vegetarian dishes, in which no animal meat or fish was processed, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and comprehensive variety of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. Not to be left out is the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Especially the delicious juices are highly appreciated by the guests.
