On this homepage, you will find the complete menu of Apache Pizza from Dublin. Currently, there are 13 dishes and drinks available. Despite some previous issues with orders being incorrect or delivered late, Apache Pizza in Macroom seems to have improved their service with more timely deliveries and accurate orders. However, one customer experienced missing items in their order and unhelpful staff when trying to address the issue. Another reviewer found the pizza to have too much sauce and small cheese portions but acknowledged the potential for improvement. The quality of the food itself was generally praised, with one customer stating it was better than Domino's. Although there may still be room for improvement, the overall consensus is that the pizzas are delicious and worth trying.
