You can have table service or buffet lunch, you can also combine the two. The hotel is an upper class establishment. The service is up to scratch, and everything is clean and tidy, and the staff very helpful. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WiFi. What the starters were good, especially the tigerwagen! However, there was a hair found in the cauliflower cheese, which was sputtering and although we understand that these things happen, there was no excuse at first. the haare in this gave us the hygiene standards of the bistros. unfortunately we do not come back I am sure that we are able to find a restaurant that meets our standards for eating and cleanliness.
