What Yealandredmayne likes about The Eric Bartholomew: Five of us sampled curry night at the Eric Bartholomew and agreed unanimously that it was a great experience. The place was buzzing, as usual, but the well prepared staff took it all in their stride. Service behind the bar and at the table was spot on and the curries were excellent. Standards are consistently high in this establishment, which is quite an achievement. To paraphrase Morecambe's greatest son, all the ri... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations,

Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. WiFi is available without additional charges. What holidaymanWashington doesn't like about The Eric Bartholomew:

Typical Spoons. Downstairs is a bit scruffy and can be loutish. It is passable if you can manage to get one of the few booths. There is a more pleasant seating area upstairs and a very fitting tribute to Eric and Ern on the wall.

Our curries were as expected. Considerably more expensive than last year and less for the money. The best thing, as usual, is being able to order from your table via the app. read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Eric Bartholomew in Lancaster traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a delicious Trifle, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast. Of course, the right drink with a meal can be crucial; this gastropub provides a diverse selection of scrumptious and local alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
