Ground Up Coffee has received mixed reviews from customers. Some have complained about undercooked eggs and slow service, while others have praised the vegan options and friendly staff. The atmosphere is welcoming, but lacks the vibe and quality of nearby cafes. Despite some negative experiences, many customers continue to visit for the great coffee, food options, and discounts offered. The cafe provides a calm atmosphere for studying, although some wish there were more vegan choices available. Overall, Ground Up Coffee seems to be a popular spot in Bury, with a loyal customer base despite some setbacks.
