this place is a real jewel in the park, it is always as busy as it deserves, the personal is always pleasant, eating is always good and hot and diverse and even if they only find a coffee, their safe to find one that fits. they also sell a fantastic range of dog supplies, i.e. leads, crooked, pop-up water bowl and even a tennis ball star, so their dog will have a tasty egg. our dog enjoys especially the dog eternal. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Scott Williams doesn't like about Oaks Park Cafe:

Stopped for coffee and slice of cake coffee not great and cake vastly over priced for size of the slice we got. There is also a minimum spend for using a card which I'm not even sure you're allowed to do anymore if...you accept Visa and/or MasterCard? There is quite a nice seating area outside however and tables well spaced out. read more. A visit to Oaks Park Cafe becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive range of coffee and tea specialties, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast. In addition to sweet pieces, cakes, and small snacks, we also have cold and hot drinks, The yummy sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks can be planned well as a snack.
