Whispers Coffee Lounge is tucked away in a courtyard off North Road (near the bus station) so takes a bit of finding. If you are at this end of town it is a place I recommend looking for if you are wanting coffee and casual food. It serves a 'basic' cafe menu including some main meals. The scones were fine and prices fair. It is clean and service is welcoming and efficient. It is also in a quiet location off the bus... read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also have something outside, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Selina Martin doesn't like about Whispers:

My husband and myself stumbled across this place while on a day out in Durham. Wanting a last minute coffee before we commenced our journey home and it was handy for the bus station What a mistake we made, on entering this rather bare uninviting place we decided as the time was getting on to give it a go. Waitress took our order of 2 coffees, there were only two other tables occupied. We waited, and waited, and... read more. A visit to Whispers is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties. In the morning they serve a extensive breakfast here. Sometimes you may not want to consume a lot, in this case one of the scrumptious sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack is just right. Furthermore, you can get sweet treats, cake, simple snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks here.
