Amazing breads. The Wee Boulangerie is a little Paris in the midst of Edinburgh 's Suthside. The breads are absolutely delicious (I particularly like the campagne boule and stay fresh for a good 2 3 days although to be fair, we rarely manage to keep them that long! Their almond croissant is also pretty yummy and it 's now become a staple treat around our office... Definitely worth a try and take a second to look at t... read more. What User

doesn't like about The Wee Boulangerie:

The worst macaroons I ate and croissant was so stale and crunchy. For a box of macaroons and one croissant I paid £9.50. Disappointment. Nothing is French about that place kindling by the quality of cakes and pastries read more.
