Recently visited the pub and it exceeded my expectations in every way. The food was outstanding, with a menu that offered both classic pub grub and Scottish fare. The atmosphere was cozy with just the right amount of music to create a lively vibe. The staff were friendly and knowledgeable about their wide selection of beverages. From start to finish, it was flawless. Overall, I had a fantastic experience and would hi... read more. What Elsie Matthews doesn't like about Gabriels:

The staff really don't care for your custom at all, twice they've refused to sell me a drink before closing, once was maybe pm which I see there point but outdone themselves this evening.. just back from city centre with my wife so I suggested we grab a drink on way home, we walked in to find the pub empty and promptly told last orders were Seriously it's before you close and you do t want to serve us? as you want cl...
