What TomASJohnson likes about Gourmet China Cook: We've had food from these guys many times because we live locally. They are really lovely, prompt, the food is super tasty and plentiful. You can really tell gentrification hasn't quite hit streatham common because their food costs about half as much as an equivalent takeaway in Clapham, where the portions would be smaller. Be advised though, it's cash only, no delivery and it can get properly busy on Friday and Satu... read more. What Belle-Noel doesn't like about Gourmet China Cook:

I have ordered take away from here for years. My staple dishes are the spicy Singapore noodles and x4 vegetarian spring rolls. On this particular occasion the food was very average. I don't know if it's because I ordered at 4pm opposed to later, but the seasonings and flavourings were just not as they used to be. The noodles were quite bland and had no spice to them at all. I also ordered chicken in satay sauce and t... read more.
