Nice quiet little restaurant tucked away above a busy pub. Service was efficient and friendly and food was very good. We had mussels, scallops and salt and pepper squid to start. Kids had the burgers (which looked really nice) and we had the seafood platter. All tasted super fresh and well cooked. Final bill was reasonable.

Atmosphere was ok. The restaurant has very low ceilings which added a bit of quirkiness. Decor... read more.

When the weather is nice you can also eat and drink outside. Captains Table St Ives Cornwall from South Cambridgeshire is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, Particularly fans of the British cuisine are excited about the extensive selection of traditional menus and love the typical English cuisine. Also, they proffer you tasty seafood meals.
