We visited in August we were asked to move tables as it 'was reserved' no sign on table. We agreed to move to the picnic area as we had our dogs. We were told by a very polite lady they would bring the food over....However when we ordered an older lady was rude to my husband about having to change the prices for a 'take away' and then said he should return to collect it. The food sadly was poor undercooked chips and... read more.
