Walked past this small restaurant and decided to try it as I saw they were participating in the governments Eat out to help out scheme. Their menu is also very small but I think that is a good thing as they only have a few items which they do well. Had the chicken katsu curry and pork gyoza, both were really good. Nice Woman working behind the counter was very friendly. Would def come again and was even more of a bar... read more. I have been to Japan 3 times and love real Japanese food but I have no idea what Panko think they are doing. Chicken teriyaki that seems to be deep fried in batter and does not taste of teriyaki, with some kind of mayo on top and soggy fried rice? I was worried when I saw nobody Japanese working there and as soon as I opened the box and saw the squiggles of mayo my heart sank. It could still have tasted ok even if it... read more.
