What 659glynnp likes about The New Inn: Was staying at a local caravan site with our dog and wanted Sunday lunch with sport so we could watch the football. Called The New Inn and was told dog was allowed in and they had football showing. Nice food, nice atmosphere with friendly staff, and dog friendly which was a real bonus. We are looking to site our caravan permanently just up the road so will be returning here without a doubt. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in pleasant weather, and there is free WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What rachaer701 doesn't like about The New Inn:

There was a long wait for the food to say it wasn't particularly busy. The food was average and it would have been much better with proper chips instead of frozen ones and the steak was very tough with loads of fat. The real disappointed was the desert and i think they had been left for some time as the ice cream has melted and the hot dessert was cold and i could only eat the edges. I mentioned this to the waitress... read more. A visit to The New Inn is particularly valuable due to the large diversity of coffee and tea specialties, here they serve a appetizing brunch for breakfast. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
