Every year we embark on a golf trip towards the end of Summer. We've been to Scotland and Wales in recent years. However, I think we've found our perfect location. A great course, pristine accommodation, a lovely bar, hearty breakfast and amazing staff. You don't even need to be a golfer to appreciate the hospitality and views at

Carus Green. Bob by and have a drink on the balcony or a snack lunch. You'll understand... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. WLAN is available at no extra cost. What MrsBailey28 doesn't like about Carus Green Golf Club:

Accommodation was great, we stayed 2 nights, views over the 1st tee. Played in open: £30 each to enter we came 1st Prize £40 wow!! Clearly unhappy that visitors won as very unhelpful, advising we can only use vouchers in their shop, over 100 miles each way to get balls! The pro assistant let a group of 4 tee off at 10.58 when the comp started at 11am; clearly not golfers as 4 5 to get to green on par 3! When asked tw... read more.

A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights:
