Visited with 2 friends for lunch and was not disappointed with the new menu! Old faithful coronation chicken sandwich was still available as were gluten free options. Having been coming for years it was nice to see a bit of a change with the menu but still keeping the same high quality Will definitely be back : read more. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. What jeantaylor1 doesn't like about Thirsk Garden Centre:

Poor new menu, all the most popular items have been removed sadly and portion sizes reduced! No prawns or egg mayonnaise, no chips with salad and less ham. Shame after coming here since cafe first opened and always returned almost weekly for one prawn and one ham salad which both came with chips on a large plate. Certainly gone downhill in the last few months- why? read more.
