What User likes about Goodmans Field: Went here on a very busy morning for breakfast. The staff were cheery and helpful and coped well with the large influx of people from the many hotels nearby. We waited minutes for our food which I think is pretty reasonable considering the amount of orders. It was hot, tasty and served with a smile and you can have a pint or during your wait. So, my thanks to the staff. Well done read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WLAN is available for free. What User doesn't like about Goodmans Field: Useful location, out of the way of the busy area near the Tower of London, but still easily accessible. Decor looked a bit shabby and maybe not refurbished for years or so. Several local real ales on, food order came quickly and was ok although a number of things missing off the menu. Not too busy even though it was dinner time on a Sunday night. Ok for a stop off and some food. Not as cheap as many Wetherspoons thou... read more.
