What User likes about George's Tradition: This is a very large restaurant right in the heart of the City Centre so ideally located after having a few pre dinner drinks. We were shown to a really cute table made to be a beach hut with the name Brighton! Love things like that! My starter fishcake was so huge it could have been easily a main course happy I hadn't ordered a main! We all thought the food was terrific and such good value for money. Service was ex...
