What User likes about Sushino En: Just brilliant. Loved the entire experience. From the quiet atmosphere (it was maybe full) to the understated and traditional Japanese decor to the sunken stone seats at the back to hugely varied menu to the wonderful bowls the food was served in, this was one my favourite sushi experiences EVER! And with knowledgeable food allergy options (gluten free) at a price that didn't break the budget, I cannot wait to go back... read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Sushino En:

I'm so happy I stumbled upon this place while walking back to my hotel! It was and we were lucky to be right on time before the kitchen closes. And the staff was oh so helpful and welcoming! This is your next-door sushi place. For appetizers; we got the Sashimi salad(which came last btw, that was weird), miso soup and oysters. All of the latter were heavenly especially the oysters. So fresh! We then ordered: Pink Lad...
