Booked for a group of art friends, there were about 14 of us. I had never been to the pub before so was a bit worried, but the service was good considering the the size of the group. Every enjoyed the food and it came out at the same time except two people which they gave a free dessert to. The staff said that the Sunday roast is good so I booked a couple of weeks later for my daughter's birthday (10 of us) I'm sorry... read more.
