Really enjoyed our lunch here. Very pretty bar restaurant area, interesting if small menu. We had fish and chips (great fish though would have preferred proper thick chips instead of thin fries). My husband's Chicken and Leek pie was really tasty. Shared Sticky Toffee Pudding afterwards was excellent... very unctuous. Nice place and decent prices... we'll be back. read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What ScreenName55 doesn't like about Summer Isles:

The place has stunning views over the Summer Isles, but for an expensive hotel some things fall short. The plumbing in the room was outdated, no tissues, rudimentary toiletries. The bar had no cocktails. Dinner was very good, and breakfast fine, but service was haphazard. read more. A selection of fine seafood dishes is offered by the Summer Isles from Highland, the place offers but also menus from the European context. Additionally, there are a plethora of iconic British meals on the menu guaranteed to satiate every Anglophile's hunger, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast.
