I love African food, however I never tried Ethiopian food before. I had always seen this place was frequented by locals and decided to give it a try. One of the ladies serving helped me to decide what to order so I went for the doro wot with injera (flatbread made of rice with a tomato stew). Well, the doro wot was actually very good. I didn't expect a stew but I enjoyed it. The injera turned me down though... One th... read more.
