What User likes about Oriental Masterchef: if they go to a Canto place, they must stick to the classmates: chow my, sweet and sour pork, wontons etc. this is not the place to try Thai food or curry. so based on, oriental master chef is great. chow mine are up there with the best, even the dimsum are solid, large portions and affordable. I've become regular. read more. What ria b doesn't like about Oriental Masterchef:

Not worth it at all. Explained i wanted 2 types of fried rice NOT white rice as that mistake was made before when going, they gave me boiled rice and chicken pretty much again. my sweet and sour ribs had barely any meat on the bone and didn't have an ounce of sweet just purely sour overall just wasn't enjoyable. Really gone downhill since i started going here, not worth it anymore read more. In Oriental Masterchef from Barnet, you can enjoy versatile, tasty Chinese cuisine that's traditionally prepared in a wok.
