These are hands down the best fish and chips ive had in a long time! Fish was fresh and batter was super crispy, chips were like they'd been triple cooked and the curry sauce was nice and thick! recommend. To the staff don't change...what you're doing everything is great including the customer service read more. We've just moved to Tadcaster, I love fish chips and have them regularly so was looking forward to seeing what the local chippy was like. We've tried this place a few times now, trying to give them the benefit of the doubt after a...couple of disappointing meals. They're ok, but really not great the batter was very thick and stodgy. I had chips on a tray one day while we were out for a walk and they were great but I... read more.
