Fabulous place to go for lunch, offering a wide variety of choices suitable for many dietary needs, including gluten-free, vegetarian and vegan. Situated in the hidden village of Strelley as part of the Strelley Hall estate, the cafe is based in what was originally the stables, and the features have been well preserved. Portions were generous and mouthwateringly tasty. Very good value for money. Plenty of seating bot... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What Karen M doesn't like about Mulberry Tree Cafe:

Such a disappointment. Arrived 11.15 am to have breakfast. Waited at outside counter to be served but no one came to window. Queued inside only to be told that it was too late to be served breakfast as it had gone past 11.30 by 5 minutes. Explained that I had been waiting to be served since 11.15 and could they make an exception. Told 'no because chef was now preparing lunch!' Makes no business sense at all 2 dissati...
