This is one of my favourite coffee shops in Newcastle to do work. The food is great and the iced coffee very good. Prefer it to nearby brands such as Starbucks and Costa. Staff friendly and service excellent. read more.

When the weather is good you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Central Bean Coffee House: came here to do something work and thought it would be a nice place for a coffee and relaxing atmosphere. when the woman served, she did not even look at me and was very rude. the men seemed much closer and more professional, but the women who worked there were not. would not have come back here again, were not even plugged in to charge my laptops, so had to move into the sofa areas and use the extremely dirty plugs...
