I was part of a group of eight who had lunch here today. One of our friends a disabled lady felt unwell in the car park on arrival. The staff were absolutely brilliant. They were so kind, understanding and helpful bringing a chair and a glass of water and waiting until our friend felt well enough to move on. Nothing was too much trouble for them while standing outside in the cold. In addition to this our food was del... read more. We went a few months ago straight after the refurb and the service was appalling and food really bland. There were 6 of us., we each had different dishes and were underwhelmed. We put it down to them ironing out the kinks. Yesterday we went and the pizzas were absolutely fantastic but everyone else's food again was completely tasteless and disappointing. The service was better though! The setting is beautiful but we... read more.
