Searched re restaurants on Quayside for our visit. Not disappointed in anyway in fact it was a very nice evening all round. Food was excellent and staff/chef were amazing. We loved it. Particularly loved whipped goats cheese starter, and the sea bass main. Nice decor too with view of the river. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside. What LisyMorgan doesn't like about Charts:

10 of us visited for a special work lunch during restaurant week. There was our group and another couple but although there was space all over the restaurant they put our tables right beside each other? We were promised a table overlooking the Tyne. In the morning, you can enjoy a appetizing brunch at Charts, as much as you want, Lovers of the English cuisine are impressed by the extensive selection of traditional dishes and enjoy the taste of England. Without doubt, the right drink enhances every meal; with this thought in mind, this gastropub offers a large range of tasty and local alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, there are also tasty vegetarian dishes on the menu.
