I took my mother here and we had the party tee for her birthday. we enjoyed it very much. served like a tapas with a selection of dips. miniburger, garnel, crippled, croquettes. the deaf was beautiful. something I would normally never eat. the desserts were delicious. I prefer this as the standard afternoon tea with sandwiches, as I think I am too full to eat the desserts. the chefs even came out and described each o... read more. What User doesn't like about Tudors:

my experience of tudors is quite limited and usually consists of breakfast and coffee meetings. the ruchi and smoked salmon are a firm favorite. eating is of good quality round. the employment is very beautiful and is as they would suspect. tudor like! beams, uneven floors and cover and small steps everywhere. that doesn't make a wheelchair friendly. generally meet a great place for informal, an interesting lunch...
