It's easy to walk past this cafe thinking it's only a clothes shop as it has racks of vintage and retro fashion. It's also an attractive place for lunch or afternoon tea which avoids Weston's usual obsession with fish and chips. We both had the jacket potato (mine with cheese and onion, my partner's with tuna mayo) and side salad accompanied by lots of tea. It's refreshingly different and we'll go there again next ti...
