this booking was made to my mother's birthday, and it was absolutely amazing. Unfortunately there was only one waitress who served the entire restaurant, she was absolutely phenomenal, her name was sophie and she was on placement in the restaurant. she copied fantastic under the pressure and was so beautiful and helpful. the barman was absolutely hopeless and we waited for over 20 minutes for our drinks. the ambient... On George Square:

Dined here with family , on arrival it was very quiet which I found strange , Waitress was friendly and attentive. Seated looking onto George square , table was set nicely but It felt like we were sitting in a shop window. Now the food no complaints with the pate and haggis although it was just average. The main course of chicken was slightly better but could have maybe have had more pomme purée mash) This was a grou... read more.
