The town is littered with places you can get coffee. I recommend Caffe Nero Torquay for numerous reasons, Firstly, the coffee is first rate. I haven't eaten there often but I know the toasties are nice and I love the little chocolates on the counter....The staff are genuinely welcoming and engage in friendly conversation with the customers, which creates a warm atmosphere. It's positioned in the middle of town and ha... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Caffe Nero: platz looked narrow from outside, no other inside. all floors were sticky. behind the counter was dirty. coffee pellets everywhere, under the coffee machine was not only at the days dirty. manager, if I asked if they have caramel syrup for our frappe! no, for that I needed. many employees were around! the place needs a good bleach. it is intended for a rustic feeling, but color of walls is not rustic. toilets also gr...
