The service was more than submarine. Never was asked if we needed anything else had to go in and order anything. 20 minutes to wait for extra fries following our food was cold. The cook was always working with friends or was it family? And it was like it was too much to deliver fries. I would have liked to order another drink, but no one would have seen if we needed anything else, so nothing consistent. You'll never... read more.
