We visited on impulse on a busy lunchtime in the week before Christmas. Becky, front of house, was superb.

She found us a quiet table away from a large group of 20, got our food order in before their mains, and was bright, cheerful and attentive throughout. She told us it was only her first week in the job but she was a real credit to the pub. The festive atmosphere was great, tasteful decorations, and the food excel... read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather conditions are right, you can also be served outside. What augrock doesn't like about The Norway Inn:

Visited for lunch. Met by friendly staff and seated at a sticky table. Ordered fish and chips and a sandwich. Chips tasted re-heated but fish was nice. Ham sandwich for £9 was a bit disappointing as could have done with some coleslaw or more of a salad with it. Was all generally OK but I wouldn't hurry back. Toilets really overdue a good refurbishment and clean. Made me wonder what the state of the kitchen was like!... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Norway Inn in Cornwall, Isles of Scilly traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, The tasty sandwiches, small salads and other snacks can be planned well as a snack.
