I am a disabled, 49-year-old beamer with cerebral palsy and run with the help of a walker that is like a small wheelchair that I encounter before me. I attended a training course in london and decided to try this Indian restaurant as it was close to my hotel. the restaurant was small, but only about half full. I folded my walker up and asked a waiter for a table. he said yes and helped to carry the walker between the... read more. The customers love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity.
