We came in a vacation for one week and today is our last day so we wanted lovely Belgium food that will be in our memories for ever. The staff has been amazing especially at recommending some dishes. We ordered some pork with ratatouille and lamb. It was amazing. Lovely plate arrangement, wonderful taste. We will definitely visit again. Merci! read more. What User doesn't like about Le Pain Quotidien:

prices on the site are not displayed. I find this not very correct since I had to pay another €2,60 for a croissant and a cappuccino. What really troubled me was the attitude of the server: hyper unpleasant, rude and arrogant if I had been the only one to complain, I would have thought that it might not be the right time for the server, no matter what pertinent excuse is not really. I have also worked in restoration...
